How discarded citrus fruits from city markets are providing livelihood options for adults with special needs

LEMON SQUEEZY, NOT EASY PEASY

Even as the price of lemons shoots through the roof, there is still a considerable wastage of the citrus fruit at Bengaluru's markets.

In the meantime, adults with special needs in the city are now earning a livelihood by making bio-enzymes using lemon waste generated at city markets, through careful segregation of fruit waste.

Without adequate segregation, the waste usually ends up in the bin. But with conscientious vegetable segregation done in Madiwala market with the help of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike and SVP (Social Venture Partners) India, some of the vegetable waste is now being processed into bio-enzymes. Bio-enzymes are used in organic cleaning solutions developed through the fermentation of fruits, jaggery and water; these bio-enzymes can be further used to make other solutions like mosquito repellants.

The idea behind the bio-enzyme made from vegetable and fruit

Debris blocks Rajakaluve near Marathahalli

Last month, many parts of the city were marooned due to heavy rainfall, testing monsoon preparedness of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike with heavy pre-monsoon showers.

However, in the last few weeks, there has been hardly any ground preparation as many areas were flooded again on Friday night due to heavy monsoon showers. The area around Deepa Nursing Home in Marathahalli was flooded within just one hour of rainfall on Friday.

"The BBMP has not learnt any lessons. After making big announcements, they have clearly failed. If they had cleared the debris from the rajakaluve, the rainwater could have easily drained. However, with debris blocking the flow, the rainwater got diverted to nearby areas and flooded the low lying houses. Monsoon is just beginning; if the BBMP fails to act at least now, then more misery is in store," said Krishna H, a resident of Marathahalli.

"For almost two decades, the rajakaluve has not been desilted despite our pleas. People are so fed up with waterlogging

Strokes of endurance

Para-swimmer, martial arts expert, dancer Vishwas KS Vishu's life story is depicted on celluloid in Kannada film Arabbie, to be released soon

A para-swimmer, martial arts expert, and a dancer, Bengalurean Vishwas KS Vishu's life is an astonishing tale of determination and endurance that will now be documented on the silver screen. The Kannada movie Arabbie is loosely based on the many challenges the para-swimmer had to endure and will be playing the role of the protagonist.

A 32-year-old, Vishu's story is not a common one, which is why perhaps Director Rajkumar R was trying to greenlight this film. Despite several hurdles in making it, the film has been completed now. This is also perhaps the first film in Kannada to showcase the life of a para-swimmer with him playing the role.

While Vishu has won several medals in para-swimming at national and international levels, his journey has not been an easy one. Brought up in Karnataka's village of Kolar, Vishu used to live with his family. He was 10 years old when he fell onto high-tension wires.

"I was in a coma for the next two months. When I woke up, I found that I had lost both my arms and my father had sacrificed his life trying to save me. After the horrific accident, my mother and I moved to Bengaluru. Life was quite normal in the city and I had just graduated from Basaveshwara Degree College in 2011 when my mother passed away." Freshly graduated, Vishu fell into in depression for six months. Until that chance moment when he discovered swimming. "I felt it was the perfect way to heal."

While Vishu started training for swimming, learning to swim without hands was difficult and the coaches were not equipped to train him. Even after graduating, his disability had become a hindrance to him getting a job. Determined to succeed, he found out about the Karnataka Para-swimmer Association and made his first freestroke and backstroke. Slowly, morning or evening, he would practise swimming.

Vishwas KS Vishu has won numerous awards for para-swimming at national and international levels

> "The challenge was to cry and laugh on prompt. But, my acting improved day by day
> – Vishwas KS Vishu

His efforts paid off. In 2015, he grabbed three silver medals in a national-level competition and two silver and a bronze in 2016 where he represented India in an international competition 2016 Speedo Can Am Para-swimming Championships held in Canada.

From there on, Vishu's life has been a smooth-sailing one. In 2019, he was offered the role for the movie and the next year, he finally settled in Bengaluru.

As the movie was his debut in acting, it was not easy for him. "Dancing was another aspect I picked up to keep myself occupied. I learnt gymnastics and martial arts as well. People accepted me when I danced through my pain.

But acting was another ball game. I was never in front of a camera. I used to be extremely camera-shy and nervous. The challenge was to cry and laugh on prompt. But, my acting improved day by day," he said.

After his debut film, Vishu wants to act in other films as well. "Sports athletes can only compete till the age of 35. I want to pursue a career in acting if possible. I am willing to try any role in any film," added Vishu.

Karnataka PU II examinees score big

The Karnataka PU II exam results that were announced on Saturday saw 61.88 per cent of students passing where girls (68.72 per cent) outshone boys (55.22 per cent).

This year, out of 6,83,563 students, 4,22,966 candidates passed. Primary and Secondary Education Minister BC Nagesh said that the dates for supplementary exams would be announced by the end of this month.

Highest pass percentage in the state was recorded from Dakshina Kannada (88.02) while Chitradugra district registered the lowest pass percentage 49.31. Shwetha Bhimashankar Bhairagond from Ballari and Sahana from Kottur in Ballari got first place in arts. Both scored 594 out of 600. Simran Sesha Rao from Bengaluru got first rank in science with 598 marks.

'Online classes tough'

Many of the students said that concentrating during online classes was tough. Four students, Neelu Singh, Neha BR, Aakash Das, and Manav Vinay Singh who all received 99.3 per cent in commerce, narrated their experiences of playing hooky yet scoring well ultimately. Neelu said, "Everyone has switched off cameras during online classes or done something else. I was also one of those. However, I was able to study with the support of my parents and college."

Neha added that sometimes when the teacher would extend the class, they would all exit the meeting. "But, I understood that I have to work hard to score well."

Manav also spoke on similar lines. "There were days where the weather was chilly and I didn't feel like getting up, so I would just log in and sleep or sometimes go out and put a proxy. But consistency is the key."

Aakash Das, added, "I used to study and make notes, mind maps etc. So even I used to switch off my audio and video and play pranks on my teachers. However, one should be consistent and study hard."

No withdrawal of textbooks: Minister

Minister Nagesh said, "There is no question of revised textbooks. If there are any minor errors, we are ready to rectify them. We have already displayed the textbook content in the public domain which is the first such initiative in history."

Recently, Congress president DK Shivakumar tore the textbook openly criticising the revision. Even former PM HD Deve Gowda has threatened to join protests against textbook revision. Reacting to this, Nagesh said, "The textbook row is raked by opposition leaders for political gains. Everyone has a right to protest. If anyone wants to discuss the issue, we are ready." — Romita Handa

BWSSB has found culprit behind flooding. It's YOU

Homeowners will soon be fined for diverting rainwater into sewage lines

Melvin Mathew
c-melvin.mathew
@timesgroup.com

TWEETS @BangaloreMIRROR

In a bid to find a solution to sewage overflowing onto roads, BWSSB officials will be clamping down on homeowners that are diverting rainwater into sewage lines instead of stormwater drains.

Officials say that the practice can be ascertained to be one of the key reasons for flooding in the city with just a short spell of rain.

Sewage can be commonly seen gushing out of manholes, flooding the streets, and posing a health-risk to residents. Continued flooding on streets could also lead to wear and tear of the roads and prove risky for motorists to traverse through the murky water.

An inspection led to BWSSB officials discovering that people are using drainage pipes for diverting rainwater from their premises.

BWSSB Principal Chief Engineer, Suresh B, said, "Any rainwater should go through the stormwater drain alone and not the UGD line. In some areas, rainwater is passing through the UGD line or the pipes have been interlinked. The UGD line is designed to only hold sewage from households and any additional rainwater is overwhelming the system. UGD pipes start from 4 inches, increase to 9 inches, and expand into 330 diameters, finally leading to our STP. After reaching full capacity, the sewage starts leaking onto the streets."

Officials highlighted this taking place in areas like Chickpet and Cottonpete that do not have adequate stormwater drains.

> –Suresh B, BWSSB Principal Chief Engineer

BWSSB will conduct a survey spanning over 6 months to identify the culprits. While the survey has been finalised, officials noted that the investigation will be conducted parallelly along with regular meter-reading and arrears collection drives, and clarified that a special drive won't be conducted for the survey.

"The survey has begun and we are inspecting connections in houses across the city. A survey will be conducted in all service station areas. We have seen the violations are more prominent in congested areas and supported by narrow roads. Due to the vast area under the survey, it could take at least 6 months for completion," said Suresh.

After identifying the violators, BWSSB will start issuing notices to individual homeowners and penalties will be imposed. However, BWSSB has still not finalised the penalty amount that will be levied.

Rain-water harvesting

Suresh added that a lot of rainwater is also being wasted by residents which can be re-utilised through rainwater harvesting. "We have been insisting on homeowners engaging in rainwater harvesting as it will help in easing the burden on stormwater drains as well. Rainwater can be collected and reused for daily needs," added Suresh.

E-Aasthi to go digital

It will ensure more transparency and reduce frauds

BBMP is now planning to gradually extend e-Aasthi from East to South and West zones of the city

Sridhar.Vivan
@timesgroup.com
TWEETS @sridharVMIRROR

You may soon get your e-Aasthi khata in your digilocker as now Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has decided to bring in more transparency in issuing khatas.

Khata is an important document with all the important details of the property including owner's name, tax and property details. The paper format can be tampered with, it has been decided to digitise the property documents.

BBMP's Special Commissioner (Revenue) Deepak said, "We have introduced e-Aasthi which is part of the online property management system. Currently, we are populating the properties in the system with all the relevant data. This is greatly beneficial not just for the property owners but even for those who want to buy property."

This will be beneficial to buyers as well. They can easily extract documents from the digilocker. "If you are planning to buy the property, then with e-Aasthi, you can check the owner's name, photo, property details etc. You don't require files to maintain it safely and instead extract the document in your mobile phone with a touch," he added.

He informed Bangalore Mirror that earlier khatas were issued with master khata which were issued manually. But BBMP has different plans for the future. "Now, we have plans to add 42 features for your e-Aasthi which includes photographs of the owner and property and other details, location and extent etc. The digitisation is definitely a time consuming process but eventually we want to digitise every property. We are now planning to tie up with Bangalore One centres for citizen interaction and e-Aasthi details with a nominal fee in the east zone. As of now, we have e-Aasthi in the East zone," he said.

BBMP is also planning to gradually extend to the South and West zones. "Once this is done, this would mean that we have covered e-Aasthi in the core area. Then, we can head to peripheral areas and then take e-Aasthi to digi locker," he added.

The e-Aasthi was first introduced in the East zone. First, it was piloted at Shantinagar constituency and then extended to JC Nagar, Hebbal, Shivajinagar, Vasanth Nagar, Pulikeshinagar etc.

The photographs of the owner and property will stop fraudulent activities. "Revenue officials should personally inspect the location, take pictures and upload it. In peripheral areas, we are not as comfortable with computerisation as many areas have been added from erstwhile CMC and TMCs and we need to follow SOP. The ultimate goal is that khata should be delivered to digilocker. We have already identified 10 revenue officials as master trainers to take this project forward in west and south zones. These master trainers have trained 100 plus officials. We have added 42 features to prevent tampering. We may also plan for biometrics in the future to make it a robust system so that no one tampers," Deepak said.

E-Aasthi in the digilocker is an effort made by BBMP to reduce tampering of paperwork

From thinning audience to lack of funds, aspiring hip hop stars face many hurdles

'Diverse', 'versatile', and 'vast' are some of the terms used by rappers to describe the hip-hop scene in Bengaluru, but even with a head full of dreams and the talent to back it up they haven't found adequate support.

The city's hardly discovered artists consist of regular people hailing from different cultures and communities, deciding to pour their heart and soul into rap.

City-based rapper Arjun Sharma, who goes by the stage name 'Quake', said, "We have so many different styles of hip hop in the city and there is just so much talent when it comes to the underground scene here. There are artists who are doing this for years without backing down."

He added that there are still several artists that are yet to be discovered. The reason behind this, he says, is hip hop not having 'commercial' status in the city. However, he thinks that this problem can be solved if the people of the city start becoming a part of their gigs.

"People are yet to learn how to take the music that we are producing. Some will take time to grow into it. The reason for this is that there are not a lot of shows happening and the shows that are happening are not reaching commercial peak. If that hurdle is overcome, it will just be a matter of time until people start accepting us more," Sharma added.

Mohammed Affan Pasha, another city rapper who goes by the stage name 'Pasha Bhai', said, "If I had to describe rap in Bengaluru using only one word, I would say that it is versatile. One can find all kinds of styles in different languages. Each person is rapping in a different dialect and flow."

He said after live music was banned in Bengaluru in 2019, the number of rap gigs taking place fell. There were just a handful of shows happening which led to rap music taking a backseat. There were also no organisations that were helping them with funding. Even covid added to the dilemma of these artists.

King Sinister hustles it up

Pasha said, "The covid period was very difficult as there was no source of income and we had to survive on our own. However, it did help us in some way, like it did give me time to practice my art and experiment with it. But it did slow me down. I was able to release only one video, that too without any planning, just with a camera in front. If it would not have been for covid I would have released at least three to four songs."

> "The covid period was difficult as there was no source of income and we had to survive on our own. But it did help in some way, like it did give me time to practise my art – Pasha Bhai

The artists say that even in their personal lives, they had to overcome several hurdles to follow their dream of pursuing rap.

Sreejith JS, who goes by the stage name 'King Sinister', said, "There is always the issue of parents not accepting this choice. My parents had a very strong background in sports and they wanted me to do something related to it. I previously worked in the field of hotel management as well, but I realised I did not want to do that. When I started rapping, I had to sneak out from work because we would have to work for 12 hours and they would not give me breaks. They even told me they would not give me my degree certificate if I kept going for gigs or recordings."

Google's Brin files for divorce

Sergey Brin, the Google co-founder, who is on the list of the top 10 richest people in the world, is divorcing his wife of four years, according to a report. The 48-year-old billionaire filed a petition for dissolution of his marriage to Nicole Shanahan this month, citing "irreconcilable differences", according to Insider.

The two, who tied the knot in a low-key wedding ceremony on November 7, 2018, started seeing each other sometime in 2015. Sergey Brin and Nicole Shanahan have a two-year-old daughter together.

According to reports, the two separated in December 2021, as per the court filings submitted in Santa Clara County, California.

Shanahan, who is the founder of Bia-Echo Foundation - a private fund dedicated to environmental and social justice causes, has been pretty public about her struggles to get pregnant. In 2018, the two co-founded a centre at the medical research firm Buck Institute devoted to fertility issues.

The Google co-founder has requested that he and Shanahan have joint custody of their daughter. The billionaire isn't seeking child support from his daughter's mother and has also asked that she is not awarded the same either. Brin was previously married to 23andMe co-founder Anne Wojcicki. Clamour for airport corridor gets urgent

Citizens write to NITI Ayog CEO to help put KSR-Devanahalli line on the fast track

As of now the only mode of travel to airport is by road

With only a day left for Prime Minister Narendra Modi to lay the foundation stone for the Rs 15,000 crore suburban rail project, the demand for the airport corridor of the project has reached a fever pitch. A group of citizens and railway activists have written a letter to the Chief Executive Officer of NITI Ayog to help prioritise the KSR Bengaluru City – Devanahalli line of the Suburban Railway project.

"The corridor was approved in October 2020 and the government of India gave clear directions to the state government to expedite the work on this corridor. The line was expected to be ready by October 2023. While the deadline gets over in a little over one year from now, the work has yet not started. The Karnataka government has ignored that recommendation," said Sanjeev V Dyamannavar, a resident of Jakkur and one of the signees of the letter.

The proponents of the airport corridor say the line will help solve the city's perennial traffic mess. "The terminal 2 of the airport is now open, which means more flights and thus more footfall to and from the airport. We are suffering due to the current traffic situation. The taxi rides are costly, and buses are not reliable. While construction on the metro rail line has begun, it will cater to the eastern part of the city. Whereas the suburban rail corridor to the airport caters to the city centre," said a resident of HSR Layout.

Citizens say the corridor is also in line with the Center's GatiShakti project of cheap and multi-modal connectivity to important locations in the city.

Affordable mode

"We have written the letter to highlight the need to apply the principles of GatiShakti to the mobility infrastructure between Bengaluru and the international airport. Ever since the airport commenced operations in May 2008, the only mode of transport available is the road. The Metro line to the airport is likely to be completed in 2025. Thus, till then, the road will continue to be the only mode of transport to and from the airport. Thus, work on this corridor should start immediately," said Dattatraya Devare, trustee of Bengaluru Environment Trust.

The supporters say the idea is to implement all modes of transport for the movement of both the growing number of people to and from the airport as well as the increasing cargo being handled at the airport. "Multi-modal transport to the airport will have a direct impact on the traffic situation and quality of life of Bengalureans," said Raj Kumar Dugar, founder C4C.

Deceased wife's kin murder man over child custody

The Rajarajeshwari Nagar police have arrested a man and his cousin for murdering his brother-in-law for allegedly ill-treating his wife who died of a cardiac ailment and fighting for the custody of his child with his wife's family members. The deceased has been identified as Sathish, a hairdresser and a resident of RR Nagar. The victim was found stabbed on his stomach and with his neck slit on the intervening night of Friday and Saturday. "As it was raining in the night, no one could hear any unusual sounds, but in the morning a neighbour saw blood seeping out of the door and informed me and I went to check with a duplicate key and found Sathish lying in a pool of blood," said Hemanth Kumara, the house owner.

He immediately informed the police who rushed to the spot. According to the police, Sathish was married to the woman, a heart patient in 2014, and there were some domestic disputes between the couple. When her health deteriorated and she died later, her family members accused Sathish of being behind her death. They then started fighting for the custody of Sathish's child. Meanwhile, witnesses told BM that when Sathish's wife was unwell, he would take her to the hospital and she died there due to the heart ailment. Sathish's brother-in-law Sudharshan and his cousin Nagendra had planned the murder and had come to his house that night and stabbed and slit him to death. They then took Sathish's vehicle and fled the spot. "We have handed over the CCTV footage DVR to the police," said Hemanth Kumara.

The RR Nagar arrested the two accused in couple of hours of being in know of the crime. –BMB

Stock Markets are falling and falling!
What if Nifty goes to Zero?!

ಡಾ॥ ಭರತ್‌ಚಂದ್ರ, ಹೂಡಿಕೆ ತಜ್ಞರು

ರೋಹನ್ ಚಂದ್ರ ಹೂಡಿಕೆ ತಜ್ಞರು

ಹಲವರು You Tube ನಲ್ಲಿ ನಮಗೆ ಕೇಳಿದ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ ಇದು. (Dr Bharath Chandra Institute Kannada) ಉತ್ತರ ಸರಳ. ರಾಜಾಜಿನಗರದಲ್ಲಿ site ಗಳ ಬೆಲೆ ಕೆಳಗೆ ಬೀಳುತ್ತಾ ಬೀಳುತ್ತಾ, ಈಗ ಇರುವ ಚ.ಅಡಿ 18,000 ದಿಂದ ಸೊನ್ನೆಗೆ ತಲುಪಿದರೆ!? ಇದು ಅಸಾಧ್ಯ. ಅದೇ ರೀತಿ, ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆ ಒಂದು ಹಂತದವರೆಗೆ ತಾತ್ಕಾಲಿಕವಾಗಿ ಇಳಿಯಬಹುದು. ಆದರೆ ಎಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ತಿಳಿದಿರುವ ಸತ್ಯ, ದೀರ್ಘ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಏನಿದ್ದರೂ ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆ ಮೇಲೆ ಹೋಗುವುದೇ ಖಚಿತ.

ಮುಂದಿನ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ, ಇಲ್ಲಿಯವರೆಗೂ Nifty, 15% ಮತ್ತು ಇತರೆ ಷೇರುಗಳು 20–40% ಕುಸಿತವನ್ನು ಕಂಡಿರುವಾಗ, ಇದೀಗ ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆ ಕನಿಷ್ಠ ಮಟ್ಟ ತಲುಪಿದೆ ಎಂದಾದರೆ, ದೀರ್ಘ ಅವಧಿಗೆ ಷೇರುಗಳನ್ನು ಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಸರಿಯಾದ ಸಮಯವೇ? ಆದರೆ, ಇನ್ನೂ ಕೆಳಗೆ ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆ ಹೋಗುವುದಿಲ್ಲ ಎನ್ನುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಏನು ಖಾತ್ರಿ ಇದೆ?

ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಏರಿಕೆಯಾಗಲಿ ಅಥವಾ ಇಳಿಕೆಯಾಗಲಿ, ಹೂಡಿದ ಹಣಕ್ಕೆ ಖಚಿತವಾಗಿ ಲಾಭ ಪಡೆಯಲು ಒಂದೇ ತಂತ್ರ, ಅದೇ SIP. (Systematic Investment Plan) ಯಾವುದೇ ಭಯವಿಲ್ಲದೇ, ತಂಕೆಯಿಲ್ಲದೇ, ಇಂದಿನಿಂದಲೇ ಉತ್ತಮ Fundamentally ಬಲಿಷ್ಠ ಷೇರುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾಸಿಕವಾಗಿ SIP ಮಾಡುತ್ತಾ ಹೋದರೆ, ಮುಂದೆ ದೀರ್ಘ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಮ್ಮಲ್ಲಿ ಮಕ್ಕಳ ವಿದ್ಯಾಭ್ಯಾಸ, ಮದುವೆ, ಮತ್ತು ನಿವೃತ್ತಿಗಾಗಿ ದೊಡ್ಡ ಮೊತ್ತ ಸಂಗ್ರಹಣೆಯಾಗುವುದರಲ್ಲಿ ಎರಡು ಮಾತಿಲ್ಲ.

Technical Analysis ಕಲಿತರೆ ಅಲ್ಪ ಕಾಲಿಕ (Short Term) ಹೂಡಿಕೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಕೂಡ ಮಾಸಿಕವಾಗಿ ಒಂದಷ್ಟು ಹಣವನ್ನು ಸಂಪಾದಿಸಬಹುದು.

ಇದೇ ವಿಚಾರವಾಗಿ ವಿಸ್ತಾರವಾದ ವೀಡಿಯೋವನ್ನು ನಮ್ಮ You Tube ನ ಈ link ನಲ್ಲಿ ವೀಕ್ಷಿಸಬಹುದು.

ಷೇರು ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆಯ ಬಗೆಗಿನ ಹಲವು ತಪ್ಪು ಕಲ್ಪನೆಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಗಿಸಲು ಮತ್ತು ಲಾಭವನ್ನು ಪಡೆಯುವುದು ಹೇಗೆ ಎಂದು ತಿಳಿಯಪಡಿಸಲು ಕನ್ನಡಿಗರಿಗಾಗಿ ವಿಶೇಷ ಉಚಿತ ವೆಬಿನಾರ್. ಇದೇ ಭಾನುವಾರ, 19 ಜೂನ್. ಸಂಜೆ 4.00 ರಿಂದ 6.30 ರ ವರೆಗೆ.

that they are spending lakhs of rupees to raise the foundation height of their homes," he added.

Sai Layout, badly affected during the pre-monsoon showers last month, was flooded again on Friday night. A resident said, "Whenever it starts pouring, we are scared. With no alternative arrangements, we get marooned every rainfall."

Many residents complained that they were scared to stay inside as snakes had entered homes along with the floodwater. People had a tough time on Saturday as there was knee-deep water on the road; many were seen pushing their bikes to move to safer places. A woman biker said, "I was stuck in knee deep water and scared to go ahead."

Meanwhile in KR Puram, moviegoers had a tough time. Twenty four bikes parked near the Krishna theatre were damaged as a compound wall collapsed.

A biker said, "I had parked my bike to watch the second show. As I returned at around 11.30 pm, I was shocked to see my bike completely damaged. I paid for the parking ticket; I want the theatre owner to pay compensation. Many women had come to watch movies; they had a tough time returning home without their vehicles. Most of us stayed at the theatre till 4:00 am and then headed to a nearby police station, lodged a police complaint against the theatre owner."

Many residents in SR Layout had sleepless nights. Kamalamma, a 60-year old said, "At around 1:00 am on Saturday, rainwater gushed into the house. There was no one at home except me and my granddaughter. We had to stand on the cot to save ourselves. Most of the equipment was damaged. The area is flood prone but this time was the worst as the water force was such that it entered even through the windows. We don't have water to drink now."

Horamavu's Sai Layout flooded again in Friday's rain; Water flowing on the roads in Horamavu; Vehicles damaged in wall collapse at Shree Krishna Theatre on Miller's Road

1 dead, 1 missing

A 62-year old woman was severely injured when a company compound fell on her house at Kaveri Nagar in Garudacharpalya. She died after failing to respond to treatment in a private hospital. Three of her family members also sustained injuries. Mithun, a 24-year-old youth was washed away in rajakaluve waters. He lost control when he was trying to recover his bike which was washed away by the flood waters at Gayatri Layout in Basavanapura. He could not be traced till Saturday evening. Water inundation was reported in more than 400 homes at Garudacharpalya, Gayatri Layout, Sai Layout and Guru Layout. Water-logging was also reported from Sahakar Nagar Main Road, Jakkur Road, Netaji Nagar, Doddabommasandra, Vidyaranyapura and Fatima Layout.

BBMP officials blamed heavy rainfall. According to reports, Mahadevapura reported 13.5 cm rainfall in just 2.5 hours (9 pm to 11.30 pm) on Friday.

More rain

The Met department has predicted scattered very light to moderate rain in Bengaluru for the next two days. The temperature is likely to stay between a high of 30 and a low of 19 degree Celsius respectively. The Southwest monsoon was active over interior Karnataka. Rainfall occurred at most places over coastal Karnataka and at many places in interior Karnataka. Hesaraghatta recorded 11 cm rainfall, GKVK 10 cm, HAL airport ITC Jala 5 cm each.

When life gives you lemons, make enzymes waste came out of a collaboration between SVP India, and Amogh Trust, which runs livelihood projects for adults with special needs. They make a wide variety of around 40-60 products and anchor livelihood projects ranging from bag-making and loom-weaving to content proofreading, for the visually impaired.

The idea emerged right before the onset of covid-19 when the founder noticed a lot of unsold and unused lemons being wasted in markets across Bengaluru.

"With active segregation at source, most of the vegetable waste is not going to the compactor. We would end up with 5-6 crates of lemons. The good ones are taken to community kitchens and the slightly bad ones are left out," said Padmashree Balaram, lead partner at SVP India.

Also, whenever there are excess lemons in the market, the fruits are collected to produce bio-enzyme.

"People from Madiwala Market contact us when there are two to three crates of old and dry lemons available. Around two-thirds of the discarded fruit survives. Last year, we got around 100-150 kg of lemons; this year, we have so far got around 70 kg of lemon peels. Collection happens almost every 10 days," said Jayashree Vaitheeswaran, founder of Amogh Trust.

According to Vaitheeswaran, earlier they used to source lemons from juice centres. "Juice centres would throw away the lemon peels and even pay BBMP to clear the same. As we informed them about segregation, we were able to avoid wastage. They also saw monetary benefits in creating bio-enzymes and started making them on their own," said Vaitheeswaran.

After collecting discarded lemons from various markets and such, for a couple of hours the fruits are segregated and cleaned, and mixed with jaggery and water in the right proportions. Post six months of curing, the bio-enzyme is filtered out, to be bottled and sold thereafter. Making the practice completely sustainable, bottles are sourced from the Koramangala DWCC (Dry Waste Collection Centre) for a nominal price.

Every week, around 100 bottles are collected from the DWCC. Later, the bottles of enzymes are sold online or sourced by the Bengaluru-based Natural Cleaners and Disinfectants manufacturing company.

At the moment, roughly 6-8 students are working on this project but cumulatively alongside other initiatives the discarded-lemon bio-enzyme venture helps adults with special needs earn close to Rs 7,000-8,000 per month.

Fact is, adults with special needs face much difficulty entering the mainstream.

"They are taken in at the age of 18 years and taught livelihood skills. By the time they come to us, they have completed their special education. While we try to put them in mainstream fields, they face issues at many levels. They are unable to travel independently; cannot do basic math required for handling financial transactions and so on," added Vaitheeswaran.

Infra is on track for Mysuru rly stations

Mysuru and Naganahalli yards to be remodelled at Rs 92.07 cr

Despite electrification and doubling of tracks between Bengaluru and Mysuru, there is no increase in frequency of trains due to poor infrastructure at Mysuru stations. To sort this issue out, Prime Minister Narendra Modi will lay a foundation stone for yard remodelling at Mysuru.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha on Saturday said the estimated cost of the project is Rs 467.8 crore (Rs 395.73 crore will be spent for remodelling Mysuru yard and Rs 92.07 crore for Naganahalli yard). The Mysuru railway station is set to get a third entry. The third entry will have facilities like three additional platform lines, four additional pit lines, four additional stabling lines and an additional shunting neck. These facilities will decongest the existing entry and ease the passenger movement. In Naganahalli, an additional platform line and two stabling lines are proposed. Once these facilities are developed, then this will help to start the MEMU services from Naganahalli.

"The residents of Mysuru are waiting for this project as it will give a boost to industries and agriculture sector. There has been a long pending demand for upgradation of the Naganahalli railway terminal. This can act as a second terminal in the heritage city as the expansion capacity of the Mysuru City station is limited. In future, there are plans to start and terminate trains from Naganahalli station as well," he said.

Mats being laid out and a dais being erected at Mysuru Palace on Saturday

Modi mania in Mysuru

There is much anticipation for Modi's arrival to the city to attend International Yoga Day. The roads where the Prime Minister is set to visit are being given a new look. The electric poles were replaced and dangling cables were removed. Most of the walls have a new coat of paint and the city seems to be decked up like Dasara celebrations.

Simha took the opportunity to get all the flex and banners in and around the city removed. The flex and banners were removed not only in the city but flex on the ring road, airport roads and national highways also removed. Most of the posters were erected without any permission. Some flexes were erected in government lands and were paying up to Rs.50,000 as rent.

Karnataka Exhibition Authority is gearing up for a special yoga exhibition in Mysuru. The exhibition includes yoga-related products and the Prime Minister inaugurates it. Rs.1.45 crore was spent for providing the basic facilities and providing 142 stalls which include 24 food stalls.

It is expected that around 5,000 members from a yoga organisation, 1,200 students and teachers, 2,500 members of JSS Mutt, 600 college students, 600 second PU team, 150 members from Naturopathy and Yoga College, 120 members from Ayurvedic College, 100 from the Labour Department, 70 from DFRL, 300 from NSS, 100 specially-abled, 100 hostel students, 30 from the transgender community and 100 KSRP members will participate in the event.

AIISH Centre of Excellence

Simha said he has requested the Prime Minister to inaugurate the Centre of Excellence building of the All India Institute of Speech and Hearing virtually. The Prime Minister was to directly go to Maharaja College grounds for conversation with the beneficiaries of the Centre's programmes. He has accepted to inaugurate the Centre of Excellence building which is constructed at the cost of Rs.155.5 crore. There is a chance of inaugurating another important project related to Railways. The Centre of Excellence is equipped with five research and five clinical centres, two outreach centres, and two operation theatres.

Protests in parts of state over Agnipath

Protests against 'Agnipath', the Centre's ambitious scheme for short-term recruitment into the armed forces, erupted in several parts of Belagavi and Dharwad districts on Saturday, and the police resorted to lathi charge to disperse the mob at Dharwad city.

Police personnel deployed at Hubballi railway station after protests broke out against the Agnipath scheme

The cops have so far taken 30 protesters into custody. Hundreds of youth had gathered near the Naika Adda circle in Dharwad to stage a protest aginst the Agnipath scheme, forcing the Additional DC to rush to the spot and urge the agitators to drop their plan. When the youth refused to oblige, the police intervened and a verbal altercation broke out between the protesters and the cops. The police then resorted to lathi charge and took 30 protesters into custody.

Meanwhile, hundreds of youth staged a protest in Gokak city in Belagavi district demanding reinstatement of the old recruitment scheme, raising slogans against the Central government. They claimed the Agnipath scheme is detrimental for the youth and will push them on the verge of suicide.

A large group of youth staged a protest at Khanapur in Belagavi district. The youth congregated at the Malaprabha Taluk Maidan and took out a protest march to the Tehsildar's office, where they submitted a memorandum in the name of the President of India demanding roll back of the scheme.

Protests were also held in Nippani town of Belagavi district. The Union Cabinet had on Tuesday approved the 'Agnipath' recruitment scheme for Indian youth to serve in the armed forces. 'Agnipath' model will foresee the recruitment of personnel below officer rank (PBOR) in army, air force and navy for four years, including six months of training — IANS

The numbers in the grey squares refer to the sums of the digits that you must fill into the empty spaces directly below or to the right of the grey square containing the number. For instance, in the given example, the 3 boxes horizontally next to 15 must contain 3 digits that add up to 15, whereas for 9, it is the 2 boxes placed vertically under it that must add up to 9. No zeros are used here, only the digits 1 through 9.

Note: A digit cannot appear more than once in any particular digit combination. For instance, in the example, we cannot have the combination of 4+7+4 for 15.

Rules

» Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A). » Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B). » Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines. » You can't draw lines around zeros. » Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

How to begin:

Example (Fig A) – Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a dead-end (Fig B)

A piece of her mind...

Is what Nushrratt gave when faced with brutal trolling for her role

Celebrities often fall prey to the unreasonable wrath of social media users. While some ignore, some believe in giving it back to these abusers. Nushrratt Bharuccha too has been at the receiving end multiple times, but there's one instance where she got so affected by it that she faced sleepless nights and finally decided to break her silence.

It happened when she was promoting her last release Janhit Mein Jaari in which she plays the role of a condom saleswoman. The unconventional role caused her to deal with a lot of abuses on her social media page.

She shares, "I was not at all prepared for this. I am someone who doesn't sit and read comments on my posts. So, the reactions never really reached me. This time around, when I shared one of the first communications of my film online it broke all limits."

As she promoted use of condoms for safe sex as part of the film's messaging she was abused heavily. Recollecting the time, she shares, "The messages were so filthy that these reactions not only affected me, but my entire family and friends. I couldn't sleep for two nights thinking about their messages. The next day I thought should I just ignore and move one? I thought I just can be thick skinned and forget about it. Then I thought... I live in a democratic country, I too enjoy freedom of speech then why should I not share my piece of mind?" It is then that Nushrratt posted a video where she spoke her heart out. Her efforts were lauded and appreciated by many.

> I don't even want to call them trolls. I still want to respect them and say that these are just people who have shared their opinions
> –Nushrratt Bharuccha

She signs off saying, "You know what, I don't even want to call them trolls. I still want to respect them and say that these are just people who have shared their opinion. Maybe they have some stress in their life and this is their way of relieving it. From this incident I have realised that kisise darr ke chupp nahi baithna chahiye. Just take it on and give it back. I would like to do more such taboo breaking films now as an answer to their filthy reaction."
